See why buyers worldwide choose Intertextile…

“I’ve been to both Spring and Autumn editions for the last three years, and previous years with Ralph Lauren too. The fair gives a good overview of what’s happening in the market.”
Ms Michelle Klein, American Eagle Outfitters, USA

“We’re here to source all products, with a focus on new ladieswear fabrics. It’s hard to find these type of products worldwide, but this fair is good with such a wide range. We can meet people here that we can’t at other fairs, it’s often just the agents present, so it’s easier to manage suppliers by coming here as you have more direct contact.”
Mr Nicola Grosso, Brooks Brothers, USA

“I have been to many of the textile fairs, and I would say the ITSA is the best one at the moment because of the magnitude of it, the size of it and the calibre of exhibitors you see. The fair itself is very insightful because of the latest trends, up-to-date stuff, so you can get the best information here.”
Mr Devin Govender, Textile Technologist, Ackermans, South Africa

“The product variety and exhibitor quality is very good. We like the way the fair is laid out, with products categorised into different zones and pavilions. We are sourcing from Chinese companies as well as other Asian countries like Taiwan and Korea.”
Ms Katie R Drummond, Menswear Technical Lead, Marks & Spencer, England
